

What is spaying and what is neutering?

Spaying is a general term used to describe the surgery, which removes the reproductive organs of the female pet. Neutering is a general term used to describe the castration (removal of the testicles) of a male animal. The surgical procedure, performed by a veterinarian, renders the animal incapable of reproducing (sterile).