900 gram plain low-fat yogurt

1 mashed banana

2 tablespoons peanut butter

2 tablespoons honey

Mix all these ingredients in your blender, and then put it into ice cube trays, paper cups, or even a Kong toy to freeze and serve.

For the ultimate treat, e.g. appropriate for desert at a doggy birthday party, take the almost frozen dog ice cream and spread it to a 4 to 5 cm thick layer on wax paper.

Freeze for five minutes and then remove the ice cream from the freezer. Next, use a paw shaped cookie cutter to cut a paw shaped "frosty paws", remove the ice cream around the edges, and return the paw shapes to the freezer and allow to freeze solid.
